JULIUS LANSBURGH
SPEAKS A FEW WORDS.
We are almost ready to occupy our new building on the corner of 13th and F; when finished it will have four times the floor space that we now have at 315 7th street.

When we started April, 1879, in a storeroom 18 by 60 feet, and one year later took the floor under Odd Fellows' hall and two years later moved into our present quarters, each time we feet alarmed lest our last venture prove a failure. But we were mistaken: steadily but surely we added Department after Department and the rapidly increasing business necessitated ment and the rapidly increasing business necessitated the leasing of a larger building specially built for us and one adapted to still further increase our already increased business. This building, as the readers of The Star know, will be on the corner of 13th and F. During our business career we have placed many advertisements and expended many thousands of dollars, but in doing so we never paraded our goods as being better than other merchants; neither did we try to be little a brother merchant in our line or any other

All this is very absurd, and arises from the old fault of judging Irishmen by the English, not the Irish, standard. In 1881 Purnell's hand was against every man in attempting to defeat Forster's coercion act. He was fighting for life. The Irish members then regarded the English parliament as their natural enemy.
All is fair in war, and an untruth to deceive an enemy would not seem dishonorable. That this was Parnell's view is clear from the air of com-

FRAUD ON THE PENSION OFFICE. A Conspiracy Unearthed and the Guilty Parties Arrested.

CHICAGO, May 4 .- A dispatch from St. Louis says that the principals in an extraordinary pension fraud case were arrested in different parts of the state yesterday. Jacob Little, a Union soldier, died in Andersonville prison, and in 1871 his widow was awarded a pension of $36 has been ordered to appear before the retiring a month. She married a man named Barnes sion papers and came to Pettis county, Mo., where he married a widow named Rogers. He induced her to impersonate the deceased Mrs. Little, which she did successfully and drew the pension. Barnes died in 1877 and the widow to quit drawing the money, but Ritt compelled her to continue the fraud until they separated about a year ago. Then she ceased drawing the money, and the government, desiring to know why the money was not drawn, started an inconspiracy was unearthed, and Mrs. Barnes was arrested yesterday at Somerset, Ozark county, and Ritt was taken into custody in this city.

TROUBLE IN A UNIVERSITY. All the Students Except the Juniors Against the Faculty.

LAFAYETTE, IND., May 4.-The students of Purdue university, with the exception of the juniors, are up in arms against the faculty. On Wednesday evening the juniors gave a public entertainment under the sanction of the faculty. There was the usual opposition from the lower-class men. Torpedoes and the resonant bursting of paper bags interspersed the enter-tainment, but they were not down on the reg-ular program. A huge torpedo was exploded at Prof. O. J. Craig's feet while he was pronouncing an invocation. It cut short the prayer, and spoiled the effect, so far as the audience was concerned, of that part of the ben-ediction already uttered. Prof. Craig's nerves were badly shattered, and in view of this fact a were badly shattered, and in view of this fact a meeting of the faculty was called, at which the sophomores and freshmen were suspended. The students, in retaliation, met Thursday night and yesterday and passed decisive resolutions. The sophomores announce their in-tention of leaving the college unless the sus-pensions are rescinded. Other classmen sustain them in their action, and, as the members Gowan of Philadelphia and F. Coatsworth and serious trouble is apprehended.

From Wall Street To-Day. New York, May 4, 11 a.m.—The opening o the stock market this morning was active, and first prices as compared with the final figures of last evening were generally slight fractions higher. The business done, however, was again principally confined to a few of the most prominent shares, such as Atchison, Burlington, Northern Pacific preferred, Oregon Transcontinental, Union Pacific and St. Paul, and on continental, Union Pacific and St. Paul, and on these stocks the opening figures were not gen-erally maintained, Union Pacific losing ½, and Northern Pacific preferred and Burlington % each. Later, however, these losses were re-covered and Atchison displayed considerable strength. The weak spot in the market was the trust stocks, and sugar trusts retired from 91% general market became more quiet toward the end of the hour, and at 11 o'clock was quiet and steady at close to opening figures.

CHANCES GOOD FOR A FIGHT. Cavalry in Pursuit of Some Thieving Indians.

CUSTER STATION, MONT., May 4.-Thursday night five Sioux Indians from Poplar river agency invaded the Crow reservation and stole thirty-seven Indian ponies, secured a good start and crossed the Yellowstone two miles north of this station, eight or ten hours ahead of a band of fifteen Crows that are now in purof a band of fifteen Crows that are now in pur-suit. Lieut, Barber, in command of a company of cavalry from Fort Custer and five Indian scouts, is also hot on the thieves' trail. The cowmen north of the Yellowstone are aroused. Troops from Fort Maginnis will try to intercept the robbers, and the chances are good for a fight within twenty-four hours.

TREASURER FESSENDEN. Nothing to Justify the Statements Made Against Him.

Boston, May 4 .- Concerning the reports that have been circulated about Treasurer Fessenden, of the Cape Cod ship canal, whose statement from San Francisco is published to-day, Mr. F. A. Lockwood, of the canal company, says he knows of nothing in Fessenden's relations with the company that would warrant anything like the statement that had been printed when Mr. Fessenden went to California. Everybody who had an interest in the matter knows when he went away. "I don't know anything of his indebtedness," says Mr. Lockwood, "except that he is all straight with the Cape Cod ship canal. His accounts as treasurer are all right." Mr. Lockwood thought the tale about Fessenden was malicious and inspired by enemies. Mr. Thomas J. Marsh, who has had business relations with Mr. Fessenden of many years standing, said that he knew that Mr. Fessenden was going to California. He went with his wife and daughter some time ago, and, leaving them there, returned to Sandwich. Two weeks ago he went out again. Mr. Marsh considered Mr. Fessenden a man of integrity.

PREMIER CRISPI'S WRATH. He Wants to Know if German Influence is to be Permanent in Rome.

LONDON, May 4 .- Advices from Rome state that Signor Crispi in a conference yesterday wing King Humbert threatened to resign on account of the opposition made from several sources to one of his pet projects. He befalsely, then Mr. Parnell might have parried lieves with some probability, that the king has been advised from Berlin to put an end to the senseless idea of extending Italian occupation in Abyssinia, and asked the monarch if German influence was to be henceforward paramount in Signor Crispi has intimated that General Baldissera is lacking in dash and enterprise and the general has requested to be relieved, frankly stating that too many lives have already been wasted in the vain attempt to gain a foothold in that country, the only portions of which tenable for white men are at such a distance from the coast as to make safe and regular communications impracticable. Officers of the staff and line who dread an exile to Massowah are almost mutinous at the prospect of sharing the fate of so many of their Briton, a gauger at Cincinnati, on account of his extortions of money from distillers.
